

Remove a unit from a power scheme group

Introduction The following is a description of how to remove a unit from a power scheme group in Configuration Management.

Step	Action
1	On your Configuration Management Point, find the System Group, expand, then expand Power Management and select the power scheme group.
2	In the content view, right click the unit and select Unlink.
3	Fill out a change description.
4	Click OK.

If you want to...	You can...
Learn more about power scheme groups	Power scheme groups.